

6516206589.txt

How is satellite radio any different from satellite television or cable? People pay for those services to watch what they enjoy. I pay for my XM radio to hear the music and programs that I enjoy. For Congress to be attacking this topic as concentrating on more important issues, I find sad. XM has done nothing wrong and for Congress and the FCC to act like a bully is very pathetic. Get your objectives straight.